

The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice at the University of South Alabama invites applications for a full-time (9 month), tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Public Administration to begin August 15, 2025. A earned Ph.D. in Political Science, Public Administration, Public Policy, or a closely related subfield (e.g., Healthcare and/or Epidemiology within Public Policy, Disaster Management within Public Administration, etc.) is required at the time of appointment. ABDs currently near the completion of the degree are welcome to apply, but an earned Ph.D. is required at the time of appointment.

The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice is recognized for its research active faculty, award-winning teaching, and its collegiality. Since the Fall 2022 semester, the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice is recognized for its research active faculty, award-winning teaching, and its collegiality. Since the Fall 2022 semester, the Mobile and its surroundings are a similarly thriving environment that provides ample opportunities for collaboration. Located near some of the country's best beaches, home of the original Mardi Gras, and known for amazing seafood, the city is a bustling community that is growing economically, socially, and culturally.

To apply for initial consideration, please send the following documents: a letter of application, CV, unofficial transcripts, and a writing sample to Dr. Thomas Shaw at tshaw@southalabama.edu